RORY HAYES is dead. That information comes from Ron Turner. Said he talked to S. Clay Wilson who told him Rory took an overdose of pills. Rory was one of the pioneer E-C revivalists in the Bay Area. While working at the San Francisco Comic Book Company, he did covers for BOGEYMAN and SAN FRANCISCO COMIC BOOK. Hayes turned cute little teddybears into symbols of horror for a whole generation of ug readers. I'll pass along further details when I get them.

A new DOPE COMIX, GAY COMIX and SLOW DEATH may make it out before the end of the year.* Things are a bit slow this month. Summer is always that way. The artists are stoned, getting laid, tanning themselves in Miami, vacationing in Monte Carlo, racing their Ferraris, the usual newave forms of goofing off, BUT WINTER is nigh and artists go back to the boards when it freezes up outside so we will soon be seeing a lot of new stuff. October marked the 10th anniversary of COMIX WORLD, so hey, how about a few cartoons to mark the event, huh, huh? No COMIX WORLD letter this month, folks. Nothing to put in it. We'll get back on schedule next time. Don't worry about the numbers on your address label. I go by the number of copies you have coming, not which logo appears on the sheet. TELEGRAPH WIRE carries one of my columns and the new issue has a lot of stuff on the San Diego Con. Send a 37¢ stamp to Di Schutz at 2461 Telegraph, Berkeley CA for a free copy.* LOVE AND ROCKETS 3 is out. And would you believe CEREBUS is teaming up with the X-MEN?
